

I lay down my life

©2000 Polished Arrow Publishing Brenda Geneau

I look around at your creation
My heart is filled with gratitude
I'm surrounded by the beauty of Your presence
Since I gave my life to You
I marvel at Your sweet anointing
That You have poured upon my head
And as Your Son shines through this life of mine
I surrender to Your will

And I lay down my life
Lay down my soul
Holy Spirit take control
All of my hopes all my desires
I lay before Your throne

I'm thankful for Your mighty blessings
I receive as my reward
There's a peace that passes all understanding
That comes from living by Your Word
I choose the road that leads to heaven
No matter what the price may be
I want to live a life that brings You glory
For You are the mighty KING
